2017 Glendale Community College Public Art Competition

Submission Deadline: March 15, 2017

SUMMARY

This competition seeks a contemporary artist to create an original two-dimensional, wall-sized artwork, for permanent display at the Verdugo Campus

This competition is open to contemporary artists from the Los Angeles region, with at least five years of professional exhibition experience.

The winning artist receives a $10,000 prize.

Six finalists will be selected, and their projects will be exhibited at The Gallery @ GCC in April 2017.

The competition winner will be announced in May 2017. The artwork will be installed in June 2017 and presented in a public ceremony, September 2017.

STYLE

Your submission must include a mock-up of the proposed image. You may use any media to fabricate the artwork itself. The final installed commission will be at least 12 x 26 feet. Please see "submission" guidelines below for full specs.

The content of your submission must reflect your ongoing contemporary art practice and style, and be in conversation with your other recent artworks.

DATES

The Art Gallery @ GCC will accept digital submissions from January 9 to March 15, 2017. Six finalists will be announced by April 1, 2017.

Finalists receive a $500 stipend for preparing artwork for exhibition.

Finalists' artworks will be on view at The Art Gallery @ GCC from April 15th to May 1st, 2017. The competition winner will be announced on May 15th, 2017.
